So, what's the Healthy Pet Challenge?

Well I work with a Holistic Veterinarian who makes an all natural line of pet products. We have food, treats, supplements, and pet care products that are sold exclusively online and cannot be found in stores. We're Challenging pet owners to take a serious look at the products they're buying for their pets and compare it to what we have to offer. Our products usually cost less than what's sold in the stores but fresher, safer, and more nutritious. Here's my card. Take a look at my website and be sure to fill out your pets profile.
